

I resent government trying to control what I do and don't listen to. I pay monthly for my "XM" service and I deserve the best programming for my money. If the local stations don't like it then they need to make their programming better to bring me back. Until then trying to regulate radio service that I already pay for is obserd!!